Chapter 1 Definition, Composition, Purpose

1. Name and Authority

- 1.1. The IISHF shall consist of the affiliated recognised National Organisations who control and govern the sport of Inline Skater Hockey in any territory politically regarded as constituting a National Unity.
- 1.2. The name of the Federation shall be 'The International Inline Skater Hockey Federation' hereafter referred to as the "IISHF".
- 1.3. The IISHF is the sole International Governing Body of Inline Skater Hockey throughout the world.
- 1.4. The IISHF is independent and does not put its commercial aims first.

2. Headquarters and Legal Forum

- 2.1. The International Inline Skater Hockey Federation (IISHF) shall be an association under the terms of Art. 60 and seq. of the Swiss Civil Code. IISHF shall be politically and religiously neutral.
- 2.2. IISHF's headquarters shall be situated in Switzerland. The Presidium shall determine the location of the registered office of IISHF.
- 2.3. The legal forum shall be the headquarters of IISHF. Lausanne (Switzerland) shall be the legal forum for all cases which, in accordance with these Statutes, come under the jurisdiction of CAS.

3. Principles

- 3.1. The principles of the IISHF shall be general unity of action, mutual respect of Associations in the dealings with one another and the inadmissibility of discrimination against individuals on racial, political, religious or any other grounds.
- 3.2. The IISHF shall observe the general and fundamental principles of the Olympic Charter and no provision of these Rules shall be deemed to conflict with or derogate from those principles.
- 3.3. All bodies and officials of IISHF must observe the IISHF Constitution, IISHF Regulations and decisions of IISHF.
- 3.4. IISHF is a non-profit-making organisation. Therefore, it shall not pursue any objective for its own gains. It shall pursue solely and directly objectives of general interest in accordance with the legislation of the country in which its headquarters are located. The financial resources of IISHF may be used only in pursuit of the objectives laid down in this Constitution. To the extent that compensation or reimbursement of expenses is paid to individuals, this must be appropriate, justified and related to IISHF's objectives.

- 3.5. IISHF shall establish reserve funds to an extent and in a manner permitted by the legal provisions of the country in which the headquarters are located. These reserves may be used in compliance with the legal provisions of the country in which the headquarters of IISHF are located, The Presidium shall decide on the usage of the reserves.

4. Objects

- 4.1. The Objects of the IISHF shall be:
- a) To uphold the principles of the IISHF and develop and promote the spirit of friendship and mutual assistance among member Associations.
 - b) To control, regulate, supervise and direct, and to foster, encourage and advance the sport of Inline Skater Hockey in all its forms and in all age groups in every country worldwide.
 - c) To seek continual improvement of all aspects of the game, its regulations and competitions worldwide.
 - d) To adopt, formulate, issue, interpret, implement and amend the IISHF Rules Book, the IISHF Regulations and the IISHF Constitution in English which shall be the Official version and to sanction any translations of these publications.
 - e) To sanction the Organisation of all International Inline Skater Hockey Events.
 - f) To formulate and adopt and implement appropriate policies, including policies in relation to national representative teams, sexual harassment, equal opportunity, equity, alcohol and drugs in sport, health, safety, infectious diseases and such other matters as arise from time to time as issues to be addressed in Inline Skater Hockey.
 - g) To seek affiliation to and recognition from all appropriate international institutions or bodies and to abide by their rules of membership.
 - h) To establish and maintain an IISHF Inline Skater Hockey judicial system, providing processes for the appeal of decisions and the settlement of disputes.

Chapter 2 Membership

5. Admission to Membership

- 5.1. The membership of the IISHF shall be open to National Associations world-wide that are officially recognised by the sporting authorities of a Country which is an independent state, recognised by the international community on basis of IOC regulations, as being the single controlling authority for Inline Skater Hockey.
- 5.2. In no circumstances shall two (2) Associations be recognised as exercising authority over the same Country.
- 5.3. All National Member Associations must uphold and observe the principles, objectives and aims of the IISHF. Strict observance of the rules and of the provisions contained in the IISHF Constitution and IISHF Regulations, both in spirit and letter, is the primary condition for obtaining and maintaining membership of IISHF. Furthermore each National Member Association must fix in its Statutes that all its teams, players and officials fully recognise at all times the IISHF Constitution and IISHF Regulations.
- 5.4. Any recognised National Member Association in accordance with 5.1 above may apply for membership of the IISHF. Before admitting an applicant federation to membership of IISHF, the Presidium shall satisfy itself that the applicant federation controls and governs Inline Skater Hockey in its country, and is in good standing in that country.
- 5.5. All applications for membership shall be made in writing to the IISHF Presidium for consideration and decision. This decision shall be confirmed by the Council of Members at the next General Meeting. The application for membership must include the following information:
 - a) The official address of the National Member Association
 - b) A copy of its current constitution
 - c) Information about number of teams
 - d) Confirmation that they are the only single controlling authority for Inline Skater Hockey in the country
 - e) Formal undertaking to observe and abide to the IISHF Constitution, IISHF Regulations and IISHF Rules Book
- 5.6. Where there is any doubt whether an Association applying for membership of the IISHF is the sole bone fide controlling Body for Inline Skater Hockey within a Country but otherwise qualifies for Membership, that Association may be accepted for Temporary Membership of the IISHF. This Temporary Membership is limited to a maximum of twenty four (24) months.
- 5.7. Where a Temporary Member can produce evidence to show that it is the sole recognised Association governing the sport of Skater Hockey within the Nation concerned, its Temporary Membership status may be upgraded from temporary to regular Membership subject to a review by the Council of Members.

- 5.8. The acceptance or otherwise of any application for Membership of the IISHF shall be made irrespective of the political, diplomatic or national status of the nation concerned and shall only relate to the conduct of Inline Skater Hockey therein.
- 5.9. Each National Member Association must pay an annual membership fee by the due date as defined in the IISHF Regulations.

6. Rights of Members

- 6.1. Each National Member Association has the following right:
- a) To take part on General Meetings.
 - b) To vote on General Meetings (only for regular Membership).
 - c) To make proposals for inclusion in the agenda of General Meetings.
 - d) To make proposals for changes to IISHF Constitution, IISHF Regulations and IISHF Rules Book.
 - e) To propose candidates to any position of IISHF.
 - f) To take part with its clubs, players and officials in the official competitions (incl. title events) of IISHF, under the pre-condition of observation of article 18 IISHF Regulations.
 - g) To exercise all other rights arising from this Constitution and the IISHF Regulations.
 - h) To confirm participation of teams to Title Events according to article 18 IISHF Regulations.

The rights to a) – d) are only given when a National Member Association has paid the annual membership fees for that year.

7. Obligation of Members

- 7.1. National Member Associations must remain in good standing (including in good financial standing) with IISHF. National Member Associations must control and govern Inline Skater Hockey in their country, and ensure that Inline Skater Hockey is in good standing in that country.
- 7.2. National Member Associations shall observe strictly all regulations and decisions of IISHF and ensure that their members also comply with them.
- 7.3. Each National Member Association must agree to adopt and completely introduce the IISHF Rules Book likewise for domestic games. Exceptions are only permitted by written approval of the IISHF Presidium.
- 7.4. The statutes and regulations of National Member Associations shall comply fully with the IISHF Constitution and IISHF Regulations. The IISHF Constitution and IISHF Regulations automatically form part of the National Member Associations statutes and regulations. In the event of doubt or conflict, the IISHF Constitution and IISHF Regulations shall prevail.

- 7.5. National Member Associations shall recognise the Court of Arbitration for Sport and ensure that the latter's decisions are legally binding for National Member Associations, clubs, leagues, players, managers, officials and agents.
 - 7.6. National Member Associations shall ensure that their policies, programs, statutes and regulations are in compliance with the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA).
 - 7.7. National Member Associations shall ensure that their organs (bodies) shall be either regularly elected or appointed by its members. Their statutes must be completely followed and shall provide a procedure that guarantees the complete independence of the election or appointment.
 - 7.8. National Member Associations shall be held liable for all financial obligations of their own members incl. clubs, players and officials or bodies towards IISHF.
 - 7.9. Non-compliance with these provisions may lead to sanctions provided for in this Constitution and IISHF Regulations.

8. Termination, Suspension and Expulsion

- 8.1. Any member wishing to resign from the IISHF shall give notice in writing by registered letter to the IISHF Headquarters at least three (3) months before 31st of December. The member shall still be liable for the payment of its Annual Membership Fee up to the 31st of December of the year for which the membership does exist.
- 8.2. A National Member Association failing to settle any account (including subscription and payments of clubs, players) on time as defined in the Regulations will be suspended from membership of the IISHF.
- 8.3. The Presidium may sanction and/or suspend the membership of any National Member Association for important reasons and, in particular, when the IISHF Constitution, IISHF Regulations or decisions by IISHF are violated flagrantly, or when the admission requirements are no longer fulfilled.
- 8.4. If not lifted by the Presidium in the meantime, such a suspension may remain in force until the next General Meeting (Council of Members). The Council of Members shall decide whether the suspension is lifted or prolonged, or the National Member Association expelled.
- 8.5. The Council of Members may decide to expel a National Member Association by a majority of at least two third (2/3) of the votes cast at a General Meeting, based on a detailed proposal put forward by the Presidium.
- 8.6. Any National Member Association which resigns from the IISHF or which is expelled or suspended shall lose with immediate effect all the rights according to article 6.1 IISHF Constitution.
- 8.7. If a disbanded National Member Association was not in good financial standing with IISHF at the time of its disbandment, the new National Member Association of the relevant country shall take over all the financial obligations of the former National Member Association towards IISHF, unless the Council of Members decides otherwise.

- 8.8. A suspension due to a failure of the payment regulations shall be immediately lifted from the date that the full payment has been cleared in the IISHF's account. If during the suspension a team has not been accepted for participation in a Title Event (with reference to article 18 IISHF Regulations) the team cannot later be accepted for participation.

Chapter 3 Organisation

9. Structure

9.1. IISHF shall be organised in the following divisions:

- Council of Members
- Presidium
- Audit Committee
- Disciplinary Committee
- Appeals Committee
- Technical Committee

10. Council of Members

10.1. The Council of Members shall be the supreme authority of IISHF and shall hold sovereign powers within its terms of reference under this Constitution.

10.2. The Council of Members shall consist of each fully paid up National Member Association. Each National Member Association may send a maximum of two (2) delegates plus a translator (if required) to General Meetings. The delegates being present at the General Meeting must present a document signed by the President of that National Member Association appointing them as the official representatives. Delegates may only represent one (1) Member. No IISHF Presidium Member shall represent any National Member Association.

- 12.3. The Presidium members must all reside in different countries.
- 12.4. Persons nominated for Presidium positions must be present at the AGM or must have notified the IISHF Presidium in writing prior to the AGM that they are willing to be elected.
- 12.5. The Presidium members shall remain in office for two (2) years and re-election of all Presidium members shall take place every alternate year.
- 12.6. Presidium Meetings shall be convened by the President after consultation with all other Presidium Members.
- 12.7. A quorum for a Presidium meeting shall consist of at least two (2) Presidium Members.
- 12.8. In Presidium meetings, each Presidium Member shall have one (1) vote. The President shall have a casting vote. At the request of the President, the Presidium may vote by correspondence also.
- 12.9. The Finance Director shall have the following duties:
- a) To oversee the financial administration of IISHF
 - b) To supervise the current account of income and expenditure
 - c) To prepare a statement of accounts for each Presidium Meeting
 - d) To sanction payment of reasonable expenses to members of the IISHF's bodies and organs
 - e) To draw up a budget for each Annual General Meeting
 - f) To ensure the proper implementation of the budget
 - g) To present the financial statements to the Presidium and to the Council of Members
- 12.10. No expenses can be incurred without the prior authority of the Finance Director. The Finance Director must be provided with valid receipts for all expenses claimed.

- 12.11. An Individual Presidium Member may not authorise payment of or commit the IISHF to, or purchase, any item above the amount of one thousand (1,000) Euros per financial year of IISHF without consultation with the other Presidium members.
- 12.12. In the event of the resignation of the President, the Vice-President shall become the acting President and the Presidium shall have the power to appoint an acting Vice President.

13. Audit Committee

- 13.1. The Audit Committee must comprise two (2) persons being from separate Countries. The Audit Committee members will serve for two (2) years. Only one (1) person of the Audit Committee will be elected each year in rotation.
- 13.2. The Audit Committee shall be responsible for overseeing the accounts and files maintained by the Finance Director and for producing a report for the AGM.
- 13.3. The Audit Committee shall have full access at any time to the IISHF account books, bank statements and any other financial papers in the possession of the Finance Director or other relevant persons.
- 13.4. The Audit Committee shall be elected by the Council of Members at the AGM and shall remain in Office until the next AGM. In the case of the departure of an elected person for whatever reason, the Member Country must nominate another person to serve until the next AGM. The Member Country must inform the IISHF Presidium in writing of the new nominee for the approval of the IISHF Presidium.
- 13.5. Persons nominated for positions on the Audit Committee must be present at the AGM or must have notified the IISHF Presidium in writing prior to the AGM that they are willing to be elected.

14. Disciplinary Committee

- 14.1. The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of the Disciplinary Officer, Vice Disciplinary Officer and three (3) other persons. All five (5) persons may not be member of the IISHF Presidium and must be from different member Countries. They will be appointed by the IISHF Presidium. The members of the Disciplinary Committee shall have a two (2) year term.
- 14.2. The Disciplinary Committee has been established to deal with disciplinary matters as provided in the IISHF Regulations.

15. Appeals Committee

- 15.1. The Appeals Committee shall consist of a Chairman, a Vice Chairman and three (3) other persons all from different Nations and will be elected by the Council of Members at the AGM.
- 15.2. The Election for the Appeals Committee shall have a two (2) year term.

- 15.3. Persons nominated for positions on the Appeals Committee must be present at the AGM or must have notified the IISHF Presidium in writing prior to the AGM that they are willing to be elected.
- 15.4. The Appeals Committee shall have the duties to hear and decide on appeals as provided in the IISHF Regulations filed by an affected party against decisions of IISHF, including its organs and disciplinary bodies, unless such an appeal is expressly excluded in these Constitution or the Regulations.
- 15.5. Any dispute arising from this Constitution or the IISHF Regulations which cannot be settled by the Appeals Committee shall be definitely settled by a tribunal constituted in accordance with the Statutes and Procedural Rules of the Court of Arbitration for Sport, Lausanne, Switzerland, to the exclusion of any ordinary court or any other court of arbitration. The parties concerned shall undertake to comply with the Statutes and Procedural Rules of this Court of Arbitration for Sport and to accept and enforce its decision in good faith.

16. Technical Committee

- 16.1. The Technical Committee shall consist as a composition of Technical Delegates of all National Member Associations.
- 16.2. The Technical Committee shall have the power to

- 16.5. Each Technical Committee Member has the right to vote in line with the voting rights of his National Member Association according to article 11.11 – 11.14 IISHF Constitution. A quorum for a vote of the Technical Committee shall consist of no less than one third (1/3) of the members of the Technical Committee. All proposals/decisions of the Technical Committee shall be taken by simple majority of the votes cast. If a Member does not respond within the given time (minimum 14 days) this will be taken as an Abstention from that vote.

Abstentions do not count. In the event of a tied vote to a proposal/decision of Technical Committee, the Chairman of the Technical Committee shall have the casting vote.

Chapter 4 General Provisions

17. General Procedure

- 17.1. Any correspondence between the IISHF Bodies and National Member Associations may be made by electronic mail, but in the case of announcements and other official documents then a confirmation of receipt must be requested by the IISHF and sent by the member.
- 17.2. All correspondence belonging to National Member Associations relating to international matters must pass through the IISHF unless specifically agreed otherwise.
- 17.3. All correspondence belonging to the IISHF relating to National matters must pass through the headquarters of the National Member Associations at the address notified to the IISHF.
- 17.4. All communications to individual members, Clubs or Teams must be forwarded to them without delay by the relevant National Member Association.
- 17.5. The official language of IISHF shall be English.
- 17.6. Working languages during all meetings shall be according to the requirements of the participants. Working papers shall be provided in English language.
- 17.7. Any IISHF meeting can be held as face-to-face event or as video conference. A general meeting can only be held as video conference by prior resolution of IISHF Presidium.
- 17.8. The details for any video conference shall be fixed by IISHF Presidium.

18. Final Provisions

- 18.1. Any person who is legally responsible in law in each Country may serve on one of the IISHF's bodies.
- 18.2. Any person who holds office on any IISHF Body, must on their resignation return all IISHF related documentation and IISHF equipment and any other relevant articles to the IISHF Presidium.
- 18.3. Any person who holds office on any IISHF Body may not give out or discuss any confidential information or business of the IISHF.
- 18.4. Meetings, seminars, and conferences of the IISHF's bodies are not open to the public nor are they open to the press, radio, or television unless specific permission has been granted by a special resolution of the Presidium and the members of the body concerned.
- 18.5. At all IISHF meetings a true record of the proceedings (minutes) must be recorded and must include any resolutions agreed. These minutes must be dispatched to all members of the relevant body within four (4) weeks.
- 18.6. Voting and elections at meetings shall normally be by a show of hands of those present. If during a face-to-face meeting one member present so demands, a vote may be taken by a secret ballot. For elections, the candidate receiving the most votes is elected. For all other proposals requiring a vote, the proposal receiving the most votes will be accepted.

- 18.7. Unless otherwise specified herein, decisions to elections and votes shall be taken by simple majority of the votes cast. To amend the IISHF Constitution, a majority of two thirds (2/3) of the votes cast is necessary. Abstentions do not count.

In the event of a tied vote to the IISHF Regulations or to the IISHF Rules Book, the Presidium shall have the casting vote.

In the event of a tied vote to an election, a revote shall take place. In the event of tied vote at the revote, the final decision will be made by flipping a coin.

- 18.8. The colours, flag and insignia of IISHF, and the use thereof, shall be approved by the Presidium. The use of the flag and insignia of IISHF shall be restricted to IISHF title events and IISHF Meetings unless written approval has been obtained from the President. The use of the flag and insignia of IISHF is mandatory at all IISHF title events.

- 18.9. The IISHF shall not be dissolved except at a General Meeting specifically convened for this purpose and by a resolution supported by at least four-fifths (4/5) of the votes cast. The balance of the IISHF after all debts have been settled shall be divided equally among the Full Members of the IISHF who are not in arrears at that time.

Chapter 5 Financial Provisions

19. General Provisions

- 19.1. The financial year of IISHF shall begin on the first (1st) day of January and end on the thirty-first (31st) day of December of the same year.
- 19.2. The income of IISHF shall consist of
- a) Fees from the National Member Associations
 - b) Fines in accordance with the respective IISHF Regulations
 - c) Income from the granting of licences for the use of IISHF rights, e.g. marketing and broadcasting rights
 - d) Donations, subsidies and miscellaneous returns
- 19.3. Financial statements in accord with the legislation of Switzerland shall be drawn up each year as of the thirty-first (31st) day of December.
- 19.4. IISHF accounts must be audited by the Audit Committee one (1) day prior to the AGM.
- 19.5. EURO is the currency of reference of IISHF.
- 19.6. The Presidium shall have the right to choose a new currency of reference should IISHF financial interests, the financial policy of the country where the headquarters or the Finance Director are located, and/or the international situation require so.

20. Liability

- 20.1. No claims for compensation shall be considered against actions and/or decisions made by an IISHF body or because of cancellation of an international event.
- 20.2. IISHF will indemnify any person who is or has been an official of IISHF as a member of the Presidium, the Disciplinary Committee, the Appeals Committee, Sub Committees, and other persons appointed to act in an official capacity on behalf of IISHF against the following:
- a) any liability to another person (other than IISHF or a related body corporate) which arises from being an official of IISHF unless the liability arises out of grossly negligent or wilful conduct (intention);
 - b) any liability for costs and expenses incurred by that person strictly in their capacity as an official of IISHF; or
 - c) in defending proceedings which arise from being an official of IISHF, whether civil or criminal, where judgement is given in favour of the person or in which the person is acquitted.
- 20.3. Each National Member Association will be fully liable for any consequences resulting from the failure in its statutes, that all its teams, players and officials are governed at all times by the IISHF Constitution and IISHF Regulations.

21. Validity

- 21.1. This Constitution was agreed at the Annual General Meeting on 28th February 2021 and has come into effect immediately. Any changes or amendments to the IISHF Constitution shall come into effect from the date of any such resolution being agreed unless otherwise decided and shall be dispatched to all IISHF members in writing, in the form of complete replacement pages, within four (4) weeks of any resolution being agreed.
